Stump the Deacon!

Why do Catholics pray the Rosary?
 How did it develop?

The word Rosary comes from the Latin word rosarium which means “rose garden”. It is designed to be a prayerful reflection on the mysteries of Christ (e.g. The Glorious, The Sorrowful, The Joyful). The rosary developed slowly over a long period of time. Since the early centuries of the church, monks and priest have prayed daily using the 150 psalms of the bible. To imitate them the laity began praying 150 Our Fathers. Others began using the Hail Mary prayer. In 1569 Pope Pius V fixed the form as we know it today. Eventually, it was reduced to five decades with 50 Hail Mary’s. While not found specifically in the Bible, the three major prayers are scripturally based. The Rosary has continued to grow and evolve. The second part of the Hail Mary was added about the 7th Century and the “O My Jesus” prayer was added by Our Lady of Fatima in 1917. Pope John Paul II gave us the Mysteries of Light. It is important to note that we are not praying to Mary but through Mary and with Mary to Jesus Christ. The Church believes that: “This form of prayerful reflection is of great value, but Christian prayer should go further: to the knowledge of the love of our Lord Jesus, to union with Him.” (CCC 971, 2708). This is the true purpose of the Rosary, to bring us closer to God.

CONSIDERATION OF OUR CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT: TWO HUNDRED YEARS

The Scriptures this Sunday speak of Ezra, the high priest who stood before the Water Gate; then St. Paul describes how we are all parts of one body, the Body of Christ; then they conclude with the Gospel in which Jesus quotes the prophet Isaiah, "he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." How, in my sometimes strange mind, do all these quotes come together? On January 25, 1816, two hundred years ago, the Oblates were approved for ministry in the Diocese of Aix-en-Provence. Their motto was and is "The poor must receive the Gospel." In time, faithful to this motto, they came here to Livingston Parish and ministered among us helping us grow as the Body of Christ, with so many ministries here at Immaculate Conception. Finally, their mission to us, and our mission in 2016 are commemorated on two plaques on either side of a Cattle Gate (not a Water Gate as mentioned in the first Scripture).

This Monday, January 25, marks the 200th Anniversary of the founding of the Oblates who were approved by the Bishop of Aix-en-Provence on January 25, 1816. It is good that the plaques for the Gate of Mercy arrived earlier this month, have been installed, and can be dedicated this Monday within the context of the 8:30 Eucharist. The plaque on the left explains the mission of the Oblates and the ministry they accepted on our behalf, and also gives a brief history of the gate. The plaque on the right side explains how the gates were opened for the Holy Year of Mercy which began December 8, 2015, and has on the bottom our Parish Mission Statement which begins, "[We] are a welcoming community..."

The plaques were donated in appreciation for four of our old parish families: Andy and Teddy Anderson; Ora and Tommy Annison; Johnny and Elaine Fuentes; and Art and Norma Hannaman. Of course we both congratulate and thank Richard Young, pictured on the left with the gate. Over fifty years ago he rescued the gates and kept them in his barn until we were ready to use them.

Good news for our scouting program: We have new leadership for our Cub Scout Pack just in time for our re-charter date of February 5. Our new Pack Committee Chairperson will be Mrs. Leigh Slack. She is currently our Bear Den leader and will finish the current year before taking her new role. Our new Cubmaster, Mr. Justin Reine is still undergoing transition into this position. We offer a huge vote of thanks to our retiring Committee Chair, Emily

Williams without whom Pack 283 could not have thrived. Also, special thanks to Shannon Hamilton for her invaluable services, and to all of the parents who have stepped up when called upon to support our young boys as they explore the world through scouting. We have a very good program which we are very proud of, but we could never do what we do without so many good and willing adults. Our Cub Scout program serves as a good feeder to our Boy Scout program.

As we continue through this Year of Mercy, I would like to congratulate Mighty Moms for the great job they did earlier during the Christmas Holidays with their Holiday Pantry and Free Garage Sale. They served over 500 families that one morning as they came for food distribution under the PSR drop off. It was good to see not only the Mighty Moms and other adults serving, but it was fantastic to see all the youth who came with them to help in many ways. They helped unload and move food, set up, and even carried boxes for some of the adults as they selected what was needed for their families. It was a good part of the holidays and a beautiful witness to the Year of Mercy. Let us keep one another in prayer as we journey through this special year of grace. Love,

Justin Reine

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Those adults and children preparing to enter the Catholic Church are dismissed at the end of the Liturgy of the Word. The participants depart from the Mass with their catechist to discuss the Mass readings for that Sunday and to experience more fully the impact of the Scriptures in their lives. This time is known as "Reflection on the Word." This will continue each Sunday until Easter when those who are ready will join us at the Table of the Eucharist for the first time.

Adult Confirmation Classes Begin February, 2016 at Immaculate Conception

These classes are for those who were baptized Catholic, have received First Communion but have not been Confirmed. Confirmation at St. Joseph's Cathedral will be held in May, 2016. Classes begins February 21 from 1-3 p.m. in the Faith Formation Center. For more information, contact Terri Badeaux at 933-4925.

A Day of Prayer with Fr. Albert Haase, OFM
Knowing God's Will:
The Practice of Discernment
March 19, 2016; 9:00 a.m.-5 p.m.

Fr. Albert Haase, OFM, returns to Rosaryville for the second year in a row to present another workshop on the spiritual life. This year he will focus on the thorny, challenging, and often-misunderstanding topic of discerning God's will in our lives. How can we hear the voice of God in our lives? How do we know if this is really coming from God and not from ourselves—or the evil one? Are there attitudes and practices that help us become more deeply aware of God's call in our lives? Based upon his latest book and DVD by Paraclete Press, this day promises to offer stimulating presentations and discussions. The cost of this event is $50 including lunch. To register go to: www.rosaryvillela.com under upcoming events.

If you would like to commit to an hour, call Allison Renfrow at 978-1892.

The 1 p.m. hour on the last Sunday of the month is NOT silent. The rosary will be prayed by the Catholic Daughters. All are welcome!

The 12 noon hour on Fridays (not silent) is for priests, religious, seminarians and The Unborn. All are welcome!

Please join us for
A Candle Light Vigil for the Unborn
January 24th, 2016, at 7:00 P.M.

We express our sympathy and prayers to Patricia Payne and Sharon Sterling on the death of their brother and uncle, CHARLES “CHUCK” STURM, III; to Bobbie Gill on the death of her nephew, GREG ANDRES; and to the Mcqueary family on the death of their mother, MARGARET MCQUEARY.

A Vocation View: January 24, 2016
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Do not be afraid. If the Lord is calling you to the ordained or consecrated life, do not be afraid. Jesus calls and will give you the grace to respond wholeheartedly. If God is calling you, call or email Fr. Matt Dupre at 225-336-8778, mdupre@diobr.org, or visit, www.diobr.org/vocations.

Traveling Chalice For Vocations will be received by the Sharpe family (Rosemary) for the week of January 24, 2016 at the 11 a.m. Mass and by the LeBouef family (Glenn and Theresa) for the week of January 31, 2016 at the 7 a.m. Mass. If your family is interested in receiving the Traveling Chalice, call Mary Womack at 665-3505.
