Stump the Deacon!

Did Mary have other children after Jesus? Who are the “brothers of Jesus” mentioned in the bible?

Those who contend that Mary had other children usually sight the fact that Jesus is referred to as Mary’s first born son. (Lk 2:7) This implies that she had other children. We Catholics contend that “first Born Son” was a title that had significant religious and legal ramifications. That is true if there are other children or not. This son belonged to God and had to be redeemed, hence the presentation of the child in the temple. This son also had significant inheritance rights.

In Mark 6:3 aren’t these brothers specifically named: James, Joseph, Judas and Simon? Throughout the Bible the terms “brothers and sisters” are used to refer to other relationships besides siblings. Jesus Himself says, “For whoever does the will of God is my brother, sister and mother” (Mk 3:31 -35). Christians today still use these terms to refer to one another regardless of their blood relationship. To me the most compelling evidence is when Jesus entrusts His mother Mary to the disciple John as He is dying on the cross. It would be an insult to any of His brothers who would have surely taken care of Mary after Jesus’ death. For a fascinating treatment of this question, see Dr. Brant Pitre’s blog at <http://catholicproductionsblog.com/>. Learn who these men are and the name of Joseph’s brother. —Deacon Rudy Stahl

CONSIDERATION OF OUR CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT: PASSION SUNDAY/HOLY WEEK

This Sunday known popularly as Palm Sunday, and “officially” as Passion Sunday, begins the most solemn time of the Church Year. We will begin this Sunday with the blessing of palms, and as we process into church will remember Christ’s triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

We will move through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with days of preparation. They will be days of preparation in many ways. The church environment will be prepared for the Triduum which will begin later in the week, our Elect and Candidates for Full Communion will complete their final preparations to be received into the Church, and we will complete our own personal and spiritual preparation to enter into the Lord’s Triduum.

The Sacred Triduum will begin Holy Thursday in the evening at seven o’clock with the Liturgy of the Lord’s Supper. The Eucharist of the Lord’s Supper will also include the washing of feet of representatives of the parish. We will have representation from our newly Confirmed, from our RCIA Elect and Candidates, representatives of our Elderly, our Sick, a couple planning to celebrate marriage during Easter, representatives from the Mission in Livingston, and of our youth. At the end of the Eucharist, we will process with the remaining Communion to the place of repose where the Communion to be distributed at the solemn services Good Friday will be placed for private prayer and adoration until 9:00 at night.

The Sacred Triduum will continue on Good Friday, with the Solemn Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion at 3:00 p.m. Parishioners arriving for this service will find the church stripped bare. At this service we will proclaim the Passion of the Lord, have Adoration of the Cross, the Solemn Prayers, joining in prayer for each other and the world as Our Lord prayed from his cross. The service will conclude with Communion which was consecrated the evening before. Stations of the Cross will be prayed in the evening at 7:00 p.m. as a type of Evening Prayer.

The Easter Triduum continues Holy Saturday evening at eight o’clock. Parishioners arriving will find the church in darkness, with the new fire lit outside in the drop off. The service begins outside with the Blessing of the new fire and the Easter Candle. As the ministers and RCIA Elect and Candidates process into the church, the candles of the congregation will be lit from the Easter Candle. The only ones who will not have candles will be the Elect who will have their candles lit later in the ceremony when they are baptized. When all are in the church with lit candles, the Easter Proclamation will be sung and we will read from the Scriptures of the major events which bring us to this evening. Finally, the Alleluia will be sung and the lights turned on and the beautifully decorated church will be a worthy place for the Easter Gospel to be proclaimed. After the homily, we will baptize our Elect and then confirm both them and the Candidates for Full Communion. Then we continue in celebration of the Easter Eucharist. There will be a reception following the Easter Vigil in the parish hall to share fellowship with our newly received parishioners.

The Sacred Triduum will continue Easter Sunday with the celebration of the Eucharist Sunday morning at seven, nine o’clock and at eleven o’clock here, and at nine o’clock in the Mission chapel.

The Sacred Triduum comes to its conclusion with Evening Prayer in the Adoration Chapel at six o’clock in the evening. There will be no Evening Eucharist on Easter Sunday. Following Evening Prayer, Perpetual Adoration will resume.

I think it is important to call to everyone’s attention the idea of sacred silence. The church fathers such as St. Augustine, St. Ambrose and other early Christian writers speak of the Triduum as a time when the whole world quietly mourns the death of the Savior and awaits the Resurrection. For this reason, once the Triduum begins Holy Thursday evening, no other services or sacraments are scheduled in the main church other than Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. The other Sacraments such as Communion to the Sick, Reconciliation, and Anointing of the Sick are usually only celebrated during the Triduum in emergencies – if a person is near death.

Of course, the rest of the world is not necessarily silent and reflective. Some may be preparing to welcome family and friends for Easter, others may have to go to work, and a lot of things are getting done.

I think the main thing is that we try, in the midst of our activity, to stay as recollected as we can, and remember in prayer, when we may have a quiet moment to ourselves, those who are on the Triduum Journey with us, especially our Elect and Candidates for Full Communion. If you can, it would be nice to get cards for those whose names you received at the beginning of Lent to pray for.

This Lent has been a good journey and I feel blessed for having made it with you. It seems like we were just receiving ashes last week. Thanks for your prayerful support, both personally and for the parish. Love,

The Divine Mercy Novena begins here at ICC on Good Friday, March 25, 2016 at 5 p.m. in the Adoration Chapel. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. We will continue the Novena every evening leading up to the Feast of Divine Mercy on Sunday, April 3.

A Special Promise of Mercy: Our Lord's promise to grant complete forgiveness of sins and punishment on the Feast of Mercy is recorded three times in the Diary of Saint Faustina, each time in a slightly different way: I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy (1109); Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (300); The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (699).

Extraordinary Graces: Our Lord is emphasizing, through this promise, the infinite value of Confession and Communion as miracles of mercy. He wants us to realize that since the Eucharist is His own Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, it is the "Fountain of Life" (300). The Eucharist is Jesus, Himself, the Living god, longing to pour Himself as Mercy into our hearts. Read more: www.thedivinemercy.org.

Please keep our military and their families in your prayers asking the Blessed Mother's intercession in keeping them safe and from all evil.

Operation Rice Bowl—25% contributions to CRS Rice Bowl remain in our diocese, helping to support local poverty and hunger alleviation programs. This week we pray for people in our own community and those throughout the United States who struggle with poverty and hunger. Give to your Rice Bowl to support programs that help the poor in our own community as well as in communities around the world.

We express our sympathy and prayers to William and Phoebe Eunice on the death of their son, SIMON EUNICE; to Nick Bacile and family on the death of their father, NACE BACILE; to Robbie Chemin on the death of his mother, BARBARA HAYNES; to Tammy Boudreaux on the death of her mother, BETTY ANN CASTILLE; and to the family and friends of ARTHUR HANNAMAN.

Perpetual Adoration Chapel

“We must understand that in order “to do”, we must first learn “to be”, that is to say, in the sweet company of Jesus in Adoration.” — Saint Pope John Paul II.

A Vocation View: March 20, 2016 Palm Sunday

Blessed are they who come in the Name of the Lord! Am I being called to proclaim Jesus as a priest, deacon, religious brother or sister? If you feel God is giving you the blessing of a call to a Church vocation, call or e-mail Fr. Matt Dupre at 225-336-8778, mdupre@diobr.org, or visit www.diobr.org/vocations.

Traveling Chalice For Vocations will be received by the Chiappetta family (Michael, Joanne, Mary, John Paul, Michael, Nicholas and Faith for the week of March 20, 2016 at the 9 a.m. Mass (MSH), and by the Lindsey family (Ronald and Janet) for the week of March 26, 2016 at the 4 p.m. Mass. If your family is interested in receiving the Traveling Chalice, call Mary Womack at 665-3505.
