6th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all. Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’” —Mt 5:33-34a, 37

Around the Diocese

That Man is You! Restarts HERE at Immaculate Conception!

The popular men's program has begun again. This time we are doing a shorter program, only 6 weeks, entitled:

"Saying Yes to God" What is God's will for me?"

What does God really want of me? How do I know the right thing to do? Why are we reluctant to say Yes to God? Join us at 7:00 a.m. Saturday morning for breakfast and a 30 minute presentation OR, on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m. in the Small Hall. Contact Deacon Rudy at 225-665-5359 for more information.

Centennial of St. Agnes Parish

We will be celebrating 100 years as a parish (1917-2017) this year. This centennial of St. Agnes is a great occasion to remember its rich history of Faith and celebrate together with great joy on Sunday, February 28, 2017 at the 11 a.m. Mass with a reception to follow in our Gym. We will be honored on that day of Jubilee by the presence of our Bishop, Robert Muench, who will celebrate this Mass with all the parishioners, friends of St. Agnes parish and the alumni/alumnae of St. Agnes school. It is for this great occasion that we invite all those who studied at St. Agnes school to be a part of this day of grace and joy. We ask them to please contact our parish office, 225-383-4127 and give us their contact information and postal address so that we may prepare for our day of Jubilee and celebrate together a Mass of Thanksgiving to God the Father Almighty.

Gentle Hands Ministry Retreat

Join us for a Gentle Hand's Retreat on Saturday, March 4 from 9:00-1:00 at St. Aloysius Church in the Administration Building and Chapel. This retreat will provide fellowship and healing for families who have experienced miscarriage, stillbirth, or the loss of a child at any age. We will serve a light breakfast followed by speakers and small group sessions. Please register by sending an email to 4GentleHands@gmail.com.

Question of the Week

Matthew 5:17-37—Jesus challenges his disciples to follow aspects of the Jewish law (anger, adultery, divorce, and oaths) by seemingly impossible (human) standards. How do we best order our lives according to God's standards heard today by Jesus?

Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Ordinary Time Readiness

This Sunday the Lord reminds us in the Gospel that the law of love he came to share is “one step above” the commandments and other laws. He calls us to love God and each other as God has first loved us. It is a law that is rooted in the Father’s eternal love, and there are so many ways in which we can live it.

January 27 was the Eve of the Chinese New Year, the Year of the Rooster, but as we celebrated our annual Ministry Appreciation Supper, we had a lot to crow about ourselves. We thanked the good God who calls us all to ministry and gifts us all in so many ways, and then we offered a special word of thanks to parishioners who minister in so many official and unofficial ways in the parish and larger community. We thank the Big River Express for providing music for listening and dancing and the parish staff for decorating and serving for the dinner. Tables had been set up in every hall and meeting room in the Administration Building. It was a good evening of thanksgiving and gratitude for all.

Next weekend we will welcome Fr. Philip Chircop to the parish for a “PreLenten Parish Mission.” Fr. Philip is a Jesuit priest and states that he considers himself a seeker with bottomless curiosity, always looking for fresh and creative ways to proclaim the Good News in the hope of inspiring fellow pilgrims to embrace real and radical changes leading to transformation. The theme of our mission will be: GO BUILD MY CHURCH, Becoming a living stone in the body of Christ. Church is more than a building and a structure. Church is more than an organization. Church is more than an institution. Church is a movement, a flow and a calling. We are the people of God, the Body of Christ, a communion of broken people, blessed and called out to serve and heal the world we live in. Called by name and graced with a variety of talents and gifts, we are all uniquely called and challenged to journey daily the path of conversion allowing ourselves to be transformed into vibrant, living stones, dancing to the heartbeat of God. Fr. Philip will preach at all Sunday Liturgies February 18 and 19, and then offer Mission presentations Monday- Wednesday at 7:00 p.m.

MONDAY: A CHURCH THAT ROCKS AND ROLLS

TUESDAY: A CHURCH ON FIRE

WEDNESDAY: A CHURCH OF EASTER PEOPLE/ ALLELUIA IS OUR SONG

The talks will be within the context of a Prayer Service which he will lead, except at the last evening, Wednesday, when he will preach within a 7:00 p.m. Eucharist.

We hope all will be able to join us. With the Mission two weeks before Lent begins, it will be a beautiful way to prepare for a really good and graced Lent.

Last Sunday was the 99th Birthday of Anais Odom and I was happy to be able to surprise her with a good, early birthday gift – Communion at Southside Gardens where she is temporarily living while waiting for restoration work on her home to be completed. She is a great neighbor, and it will be good to welcome her back when work is completed on her home, hopefully toward the end of March. Meanwhile we keep her in our prayers as she keeps us in hers, and wish her a good belated birthday celebration in her home later this year. Meanwhile, let us keep one another in prayer as we journey through these days of February and our Parish Mission on the way to a good and graced Lent; Love,

Fr. Philip

SoulCORE

Everyone is invited to join us to pray the rosary and exercise with core strengthening, stretching, and full body movement. SoulCore is a sensory experience that combines candlelight and music, providing participants the opportunity to nourish body, mind, & soul while contemplating the mysteries and fruits of the rosary. Our schedule is as follows:

- ◇ Wednesday, February 15th at 9:15 a.m.-Small Hall
- ◇ Saturday, February 25th at 9:00 a.m.-Small Hall
- ◇ Thursday, March 2 at 6:30 p.m.-Main Hall

Please bring an exercise mat. All fitness levels are encouraged to attend. For more information, contact Amanda Milton at 225-938-5236.

Did you know you can help SAVE a LIFE with Soda Can Tabs?

Did you know you can help SAVE a LIFE with Soda Can Tabs? St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is one of the only pediatric cancer research centers that doesn't require families to pay for services not covered by insurance. The nearby Ronald McDonald House is available to provide housing for families that don't live close to the Memphis facility. Every 1,267 tabs you save equals one pound of high-grade aluminum. We presently have five children from our parish who are battling cancer. Read more: <http://www.ehow.com/how/8479115/save-pop-tabs-st-jude.html>. You can bring tabs to the church office. For more information, contact Gwen Richard at grrichard@icc-msh.org.

Friends of St. Joseph needs your help in the before, during and after preparations of the St. Joseph Altar.

If you would like to help with baking cookies, please come at 9 am to the Main Hall on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Please contact Rosie Moak at 664-0070 if you have questions.

Recognizing God in your Ordinary Moments

I saw a slogan once for an Internet start-up: "There is one rule; there are no rules." In fact, when I searched for this slogan again online, I was surprised at all of the variations on the "no rules" sentiment. Apparently, even Justin Bieber has a documented quote: "I want my world to be fun. No parents, no rules, no nothing. Like, no one can stop me. No one can stop me." Wow. My own kids seldom read my reflections. If they are reading this one, don't get any ideas!

Of course, a society without laws or rules will not exist for very long. The laws of a society are there to protect us from perhaps our greatest enemy: ourselves. We can't just do whatever we feel like. We will eventually hurt others or ourselves. The laws of God and his Church have the same effect. Sinful and imperfect people need parameters. Christians who choose sin or their own will over God's commandments not only break the relationship they have with their God, but they hurt others and diminish the body of Christ.

A stewardship way of life asks of us to live in a certain manner. We sometimes think that our cultivation of gifts and giving them back with increase to God is for God's sake. God's commands do not benefit God, for God is complete and perfect without need for increase. But this way of life is for the benefit of his creation. There is no power struggle here between a God of rules and his children. The cross bears witness to that. Instead, God's "rules" prevent us from destroying ourselves, and give us a path so we may flourish. Whether you are an ordinary Joe or an ordinary Bieber, following God's commands will lead to the real satisfaction in this gift of life.

World Marriage Day—Sunday, February 12

Our Marriage Prayer
Husbands, take both of your bride's hands, put them together and wrap your own hands around them.

Lord, help us to remember when we first met and the strong love that grew between us. To work that love into practical things so that nothing can divide us. We ask for words both kind and loving and hearts always ready to ask for forgiveness as well as to forgive. Dear Lord, we put our marriage into Your hands. Amen.

FREEZER FRIENDS—WE ARE BACK—This

ministry is for the needs of individuals and families, whether they are parishioners or not, who may find themselves in situations where cooking and grocery shopping may be a temporary hardship. If you would like to donate meals, please prepare the meal, freeze it in a disposable container, label it including heating instructions and bring to the Church Office during hours (M-F; 8 am-5 pm) or you can place the items in the Freezer Friends Freezer. Thank you!

Traveling Chalice For Vocations—The Chalice will be received by the James family (Ruth) for the week of February 19, 2017 at the 11 a.m. Mass. If your family is interested in receiving the Traveling Chalice, call Mary Lynn Womack at 665-3505.
