1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

TEMPTATION

Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me."—Mt 4:8-9

Consideration of our Christian Commitment: A Lenten Journey

This Sunday as we celebrate the First Sunday of Lent we also take time to reflect upon our Commitment to Ministry. The Lord went into the desert for forty days to reflect upon his commitment to minister the Father's Unconditional Love – how could he best do it. His human nature allowed him to be tempted, but the Father's love and his love for the Father prevailed.

Some numbers seem more important than others. Just think of special birthdays, birthdays such as 13, 18, 21, 65, years that possibly signal the beginning of a new chapter in our lives. We see birthday cards celebrating 6, 8, 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, 70 and so on, but we don't see that many cards celebrating birthday 27, 53 or 61. The big, round numbers usually are the ones which call our attention.

In the Scriptures, some numbers seem more important than others. One number which shows up in our Scriptures today is the number 40. I read last week that the number 40 appears 146 times in Scripture, far too many to list here, but these are just a few:

- + 40 days of rain during the flood at the time of Noah;
- + 40 years Moses spent in Egypt as shepherd and leader;
- + 40 days Moses spent on Mt. Sinai receiving the commandments;
- + 40 years of wandering in the desert when Israel was disobedient;
- + 40 days Elijah spent in the cave awaiting the word of God;
- + 40 days Jonah spent preaching in Nineveh;
- + 40 days spent by Jesus in the wilderness after his Baptism;
- + 40 days Jesus appeared to his disciples between his Resurrection and Ascension.

So the number 40 appears frequently in the Scriptures, especially related to time of testing and preparation for great turning points. In the Gospel today, the 40 days Jesus was in the desert being tempted is more than a simple marking of how many days he was there. It links his experience to that of Moses, Elijah, the prophets and the people of Israel during the Exodus. Those 40 days of testing were also days of preparation, getting him ready for all he was going to reveal. After the days of Noah and Moses and the Israelites, it was always a great, new beginning, so would it be for Jesus, and through Jesus for us. One thing stands out –

AFTER THIS TIME OF TESTING, THE PERSONS BEING TESTED SEEM TO BE STRONGER THAN EVER, AND READY TO BE OF SERVICE TO GOD, ANNOUNCING THE BEGINNING OF A NEW DAY FILLED WITH GOD'S LOVE.

I think it is good as we begin Lent to remember all those who have gone through 40 days such as we are beginning. Let us in faith prepare for what God may wish to be doing with us, for us and through us for his beloved world. In a lot of ways this ties in with Stewardship of Ministry below.

This Sunday we traditionally begin to reconsider our commitment to Stewardship of Ministry, Stewardship of Time and Talent. If we really wanted to be dramatic, in light of what has just been written, we might want to spend 40 days considering that commitment, emerging from Lent into a new commitment of time and talent. But I think that would probably get old fast, and you would be ready to chase me out before Lent was over. Instead, we have traditionally presented the invitation on the First Sunday of Lent, asking you to prayerfully consider your (re) commitments this First Week of Lent and then return your commitment cards next Sunday in the Commitment Procession. Next Sunday when we return them we will hear the Gospel of the Transfiguration. Isn't this what our commitments are intended to do? –Transfigure our lives, the lives of others, our world?

As we celebrate the beginning of Lent, I would like to share with you another new beginning with a ministry that is associated with Lent. Our candidates and catechumens will be received by the Bishop this Sunday afternoon in the Rites of Election at the Cathedral at 4:30. I hope to be there with them, at least for the beginning of the ceremony, but will have to return to the parish in time for the evening Eucharist. Every family in the parish has received the names of one of our candidates or catechumens. This poster will be in the church foyer to remind you of them and to pray for them. As you enter the "church building" remember those who are preparing to enter "the living Church," the Body of Christ.

As we continue through this Lenten Season, let us keep one another in prayer. Love,

John H.

Parish Life ♦ Formation

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

None of us comes to faith without first being called by God. During this past year, the catechumens and candidates in the R.C.I.A. Process have been nourished by the Word of God, the teaching of the Church, and the support, prayer and example of our Catholic Christian community. Their journey of faith began with a call from God. They come before us today so that we, their faith community, may confirm God's calling them to begin the final period of their initiation into the full sacramental life of the Church.

After the Rite of Sending, the catechumens and candidates will be presented to Bishop Muench at the Rite of Election which takes place at St. Joseph Cathedral in Baton Rouge this afternoon. It is appropriate for the Bishop to recognize them because he is the sign of unity of the particular Church, and it is the parish community's responsibility to bring those in RCIA into the fullness of the Church. The sponsors and godparents' roles are very significant; they represent the community and are asked during this Rite to make a public testimony about the catechumens. The decision of the RCIA participant to go through this Rite means that the judgement and decision-making about whether to enter the Catholic Church has ended. From this point forward, they are no longer catechumens but are called the "Elect". They will enter into the final period of preparation for initiation into the Church. After the Rite, they will be honored at a reception where they will be able to meet the Bishop.

Recognizing God in your Ordinary

Can you believe Lent is here already? It seems like not that long ago I was decorating a Christmas tree! Time waits for no one and that is why it is important to make a mindful commitment now to not let this Lenten season pass you by. It is a great time to focus on growing as an everyday steward. The temptations are always there to procrastinate or to give in to spiritual laziness, but the Church's observation of Lent offers us so many tools to help us get on track. Increased devotions such as Stations of the Cross, various parish missions, or Lenten-focused literature are all gifts that your parish may be offering to assist you in this season.

With the Passion being the focus of Lent, it is easy to contemplate the value of true generosity. How could someone give more than Jesus? He gave until his life was spent on a cross. When contemplating how we can increase our generosity in all aspects of our life, we only need to look to the cross. Of course, this also brings home to us that more may be asked of us than we bargained. The temptation is to not give too much, out of fear that we might face persecution or worse.

But we take solace in the fact that we are disciples of One who had the same temptations. He overcame those temptations. He rejected the easy way out. His love and generosity could not be contained. He gave it all so that you and I have the chance to do the same. This Lent, look to the greatest example of stewardship that ever lived. Jesus will show us the way to observe a Lent that will soon bring forth great Easter fruit.

Well-Read Mom

Well-Read Mom Group Forming Soon at ICC

Well-Read Mom is a way for women to reclaim time to read the best. The goal is to provide a monthly structure for reading high quality literature and grow in friendship in the process. The year includes great books, spiritual classics (during Advent and Lent), worthy reads, poetry and selected essays from the Catholic and Western Tradition. The books are selected in a way that works with the rhythm of a woman's life. Visit their website at www.well-readmom.com. If you are interested and would like more information, contact Phoebe Eunice at 284-0475.

Young at Heart Luncheon—will be held on Wednesday, March 8 at 11 am at Immaculate
