Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Passion Sunday/Holy Week

This Sunday known popularly as Palm Sunday and “officially,” as Passion Sunday begins the most solemn time of the Church Year. We will begin this Sunday with the blessing of palms, and as we process into church will remember Christ’s triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

We will move through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday with days of preparation. They will be days of preparation in many ways. The church environment will be prepared for the Triduum which will begin later in the week, our Elect and Candidates for Full Communion will complete their final preparations to be received into the Church, and we will complete our own personal and spiritual preparation to enter into the Lord’s Triduum.

The Sacred Triduum will begin Holy Thursday in the evening at seven o’clock with the Liturgy of the Lord’s Supper. The Eucharist of the Lord’s Supper, will also include the washing of feet of representatives of the parish. At the end of the Eucharist, we will process with the remaining Communion to the place of repose where the Communion, to be distributed at the solemn services Good Friday, will be placed for private prayer and adoration until 9:00 at night.

The Sacred Triduum will continue on Good Friday, with the Solemn Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion at 3:00 p.m. At this service we will proclaim the Passion of the Lord, have Adoration of the Cross, the Solemn Prayers, joining in prayer for each other and the world as Our Lord prayed from his cross. The service will conclude with Communion which was consecrated the evening before. Stations of the Cross will be prayed in the evening at 7:00 p.m. as a type of Evening Prayer.

The Easter Triduum continues Holy Saturday evening at eight o’clock. The service begins outside the church with the Blessing of the new fire and the Easter Candle. As we process into the church, the candles of the congregation will be lit from the Easter Candle. When all are in the church with lit candles, the Easter Proclamation will be sung and we will read from the Scriptures of the major events which bring us to this evening. Finally, the Alleluia will be sung and the lights turned on and the beautifully decorated church will be a worthy place for the Easter Gospel to be proclaimed. After the homily, we will baptize our Elect and then confirm both them and the Candidates for Full Communion. Then we continue in celebration of the Easter Eucharist. There will be a reception following the Easter Vigil in the parish hall to share fellowship with our newly received parishioners.

The Sacred Triduum will continue Easter Sunday with the celebration of the Eucharist Sunday morning at seven, nine o’clock and at eleven o’clock here, and at nine o’clock in the mission chapel. The Sacred Triduum comes to its conclusion with Evening Prayer in the Adoration Chapel at six o’clock in the evening. There will be no Evening Eucharist on Easter Sunday. Following Evening Prayer, Perpetual Adoration will resume.

I think it is important to call to everyone’s attention the idea of sacred silence. The church fathers such as St. Augustine, St. Ambrose and other early Christian writers speak of the Triduum as a time when the whole world quietly mourns the death of the Savior and awaits the Resurrection. For this reason, once the Triduum begins Holy Thursday evening, no other services or sacraments are scheduled in the main church other than Stations of the Cross on Good Friday. The other Sacraments such as Communion to the Sick, Reconciliation, and Anointing of the Sick are usually only celebrated during the Triduum in emergencies – if a person is near death.

It is good that we try, in the midst of our activity, to stay as recollected as we can, and remember in prayer, when we may have a quiet moment to ourselves, those who are on the Triduum Journey with us, especially our Elect and Candidates for Full Communion. If you can, it would be nice to get cards for those whose names you received at the beginning of Lent to pray for.

As I personally prepared for Holy Week one person stood out in my mind. It has been my habit as we neared

Holy Week to ask the other priests and deacons if any of them wished to preach during the Triduum. Deacon Pete was always the first to respond to my memo saying that he would love to preach. He often preached on Holy Thursday, but was really desirous to preach during this special time of the year. He was always willing and happy to serve, loving the parish, her parishioners and his ministry as deacon. I am confident he will be looking down on us praying that we have a good and blessed Triduum and Easter.

This Lent has been a good journey and I feel blessed for having made it with you. It seems like we were just receiving ashes last week. Thanks for your prayerful support, both personally and for the parish. Love,

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The RCIA team and catechists offer our thanks to the parish community who prayed for and with our Elect and Candidates during the RCIA Penitential Rite and the RCIA Scrutinies. Please continue to pray for them as they enter final week of preparation for the sacraments of initiation.

ONE BOOK, ONE CHURCH

“Prayer Our Deepest Longing” by Ronald Rolheiser, Diocesan Lenten Book Study.

Week Seven: Session Six

Question of the Week: “The ideal disciple is the one who is attuned to Christ’s heartbeat” (p. 65). What does being a disciple of Christ—a Christian—mean to you? How might being “attuned to Christ’s heartbeat” change this?

Catholic Charities Diocese of Baton Rouge, St. Vincent de Paul and St. Joseph Cathedral will host their annual Downtown Way of the Cross Good Friday, April 14 from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. The procession begins at St. Joseph Cathedral, travels a 14-station route throughout the State Capitol grounds, returning to the steps of the Cathedral. This year, community advocates, church leaders, and representatives from local nonprofits will lead the crowd through the capitol grounds, stopping at each station to read the mysteries of Christ and reflect upon them as they relate to our world today through the suffering of the poor, illiterate, sick, imprisoned and unborn. More than 300 people of all faiths are expected to attend.

For any questions about the event, please call Catholic Charities at 225-336-8700 or visit www.CatholicCharitiesBR.org.

Young at Heart Luncheon—will be held on Wednesday, April 12 at 11 am at Immaculate Conception Church in the Main Hall. Please bring a covered dish to feed 12 people. For more information, call Linda Lopez at 665-3202.

Thank you to everyone that helped make the youth Lenten dinner a HUGE SUCCESS! A special thank you to Tony's Seafood, Robby & Dee Arbonne, Ronnie & Lynn Dugas, Gwen Richard, Whitney Hebert, Tammy Valentine, & Stephanie Ryals...ISM LOVES YOU!!!

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our liturgy, with its very dramatic and poignant readings, immerses into all of the raw emotions life can often bring. We hear of betrayal, fear, anger, disappointment, confusion, suffering, and even death. The veil of injustice is pulled over the life of the innocent Lamb and God, who walked with us, is called to face his death on the cross. Yet Jesus remains faithful and accepts the fate that is before him. In all of this, he never wavers from the truth and continues to speak of mercy, forgiveness, and a God who loves.

When life gets the best of us and brings us to our knees, can we remain faithful to the truth and accept what we cannot control?
