DEDICATION OF ST. JOHN LATERAN

Your Gifts to the BAA Meet Needs Throughout the Diocese

In this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal, we celebrate the mercy of God, knowing we have been called to extend Christ's mercy to others just as the Lord shows compassion to us. Jesus taught, "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36). A picture of your commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ and your regard for others, parishioners from Immaculate Conception Parish have prayerfully made the Bishop's Annual Appeal a priority, and that support is a great encouragement to your neighbors and friends.

Through your generosity, Catholic Charities' staff and volunteers minister to thousands of your neighbors, the Sanctuary for Life provides a home and care for young expectant mothers, and deserving young people experience a quality Catholic education—all because you give to support these deserving ministries and more.

Please pray about your participation in the BAA this year as we strive to Be Merciful. Last week, Bishop Muench mailed each parishioner and family a packet of information inviting them to be a part of that effort by choosing to contribute to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. If you did not receive a packet, please contact the Office of Stewardship at (225) 336-8790 or via e-mail at stewardship@dior.org. To give online, visit baabr.org.

CONSIDERATION OF OUR CHRISTIAN COMMITMENT: ORDINARY TIME OF THANKS

The Scriptures this Sunday begin to speak of the end of time as we approach the end of the Liturgical Year November 20th with the Solemnity of Christ the King.

Today's Gospel is a clear example of things, especially things in and of the world, which may not always be what they might seem to be. The disciples saw Herod's temple, adorned with majestic articles but they could not see the spiritual desolation behind the façade. At the time, the temple's outward decorations hid hypocrisy, oppression and the coming rejection of Christ.

Jesus warned his followers about false teachers as he knew the untold secrets hidden by the grandeur of the temple. Jesus knew that external appearances and golden tongued teachers can be deceivers. We are challenged to discern in our daily lives the true and often underlying meaning of many teachers of faith. St. Ignatius tells us to focus on both our emotions and intellect to detect and listen to the movement of the Holy Spirit within us as a key tool in seeing what may be behind a potential false prophet.

Of course not all false prophets are religious. Indeed much of the confusing information we are exposed to on a regular basis includes things that are not as they may seem at first glance. We see get-rich-quick schemes, and know there are all kinds of schemers out there, some who will prey on the elderly and the less fortunate in society. We must always practice active discernment as a habit of our spiritual life- and not just in a formal religious context but in all parts of our life.

Today's call from Jesus to his first followers, and to us as well, is much harder to hear. We are not promised a worry-free, easy life on earth. In fact, Jesus explicitly makes it clear that his disciples will be hated and persecuted—but in those painful moments are wonderful opportunities for us to manifest our witness to the Gospel.

We, who seek to serve Christ in the world, will inevitably face resistance, recrimination for our faith and even persecution. We, however, are promised hope, strength and support from God—if we have the wisdom to trust in Him. The Holy Spirit will carry us with God's thoughts and words when our own wisdom and effort would leave us empty.

We all have moments of misery and insecurity—and this emptiness in us cannot be filled with the trappings of the world - money, success or worldly goods. Just like the temple exterior that hid the unsettled interior, our external veneer may not reflect our true interior disquiet. It is only through faith and a strong relationship with Jesus that we can find meaning and purpose, even when we are in painful or uncomfortable encounters. We must become aware of the comfort that God can give us by helping us turn negatives into positives, tragedies into triumphs, heartaches into moments of grace.

Our service will not always be easy and it will at times be tiring. It's hard to put others' needs ahead of our own. It's often difficult for us to take the right path in our own lives when it is often easier to take shortcuts. We need our imagination to see the return of Jesus in His glory to help sustain us.

We should be comforted by the fact that we are not pioneers, but followers, and that God will hold us in His heart throughout all our lives.

Many thanks to Tonda Delahoussaye who painted the "Banner of Remembrance" which was in the church foyer for the Annual Memorial Service the Sunday before All Saints Day. It is a beautiful gift she makes for us each year, every year with a slightly different décor. Next Sunday will be the end of the Year of Mercy. She decorated the Gates of Mercy for their first Christmas in their present, permanent location. We thank her for the talents shared through the years in so many ways.

Congratulations and best wishes to our ninety second graders who will be celebrating Sacramental Reconciliation for the first time this week. It is a special time for them, for their families, and for us all as they take another step closer to joining us around the Table of the Lord during the Easter Season. We wish them God's every blessing, this week and in the years to come.

Let us keep one another in prayer as we continue through this month of thanksgiving and gratitude. Love,

John J. H.

Stump the Deacon!

What exactly is purgatory and why is it necessary?

Purgatory, contrary to popular opinion, is not a place of punishment. It is not a pleasant place because we are still separated from that perfect union with God and His love that we call heaven. The church teaches that after death we “undergo a purification so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven”. (CCC 1033) Purgatory is actually one of the most profound and beautiful expressions of God’s love and mercy. All of our life on earth God is trying to transform us, to make our inner most being as holy as He is so that we will be able to enter heaven. But we are too attached to our sins and to those material things of earth that distract us and pull us away from our loving relationship with God. To enter heaven we need to let go of anything and everything that is holding us back. If we are unable to do this in this life, God gives us one last chance to change, purgatory. Jesus has warned us about hell and the day of judgement that will come to all of us one day. He has warned us to be prepared. If we want to shorten our own time in purgatory, we need to start now letting go of our attachment to sins and to the things in this world that come between us and our loving God. —Deacon Rudy Stahl

Book Of Remembrance

During the month of November, we have the custom of giving a place of honor to the Book of Remembrance in which we write the names of our deceased relatives and friends. The book will remain on a stand near the altar for the convenience of those who wish to write the names of their deceased in it until Advent. Those whose names are written in the Book of Remembrance will be remembered at the Eucharistic celebrations through the month of November.

The presence of the Book of Remembrance in the Church at Thanksgiving will be especially meaningful as we give thanks not only for the blessings of the earth, but the blessing of family, friends and eternal life.

PLEASE NOTE: The Mass Intention Book for 2017 will open on Tuesday, November 15.

Adoration Chapel News: Besides restoring the chapel, there is obviously the need to restore our list of Committed Adorers. Allison Renfrow is seeking to rebuild our list of Committed Adorers. If she has not reached you yet, you can contact her via email at arenfrow05@bellsouth.net.

We Need You Once Again! We are asking for volunteers who would like to help clean the church. Think about it, pray about it, and if interested, call Gussie Davis at 572-3947 or Jo Ann Martrain at 324-2904. We would love to have you join our team. What a beautiful way to glorify the Lord!

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK
Jesus often preached that his kingdom is not of this world. He also instructed the disciples that the end of the world as we know it would eventually come but provided no details about the time. For those who are called to live by faith it is not important to know. Cultivating an attitude of trust that God will take care of all things in God's time is the goal of every believer.

Help Needed: One of our Immaculate Conception Bible Study groups has started a ministry crocheting mats out of plastic bags for the homeless to sleep on. You can either work from home (supplies/instruction provided and delivered to your home) or join them every third Wednesday of the month at 1 p.m. If you know how to crochet and would like to be a part of this ministry, please contact Peggy Foye at 667-7960 or Melanie Sullivan at 225-573-9933.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Luke 21:5-19

What do you find most interesting about Jesus' "end-time" predictions?
