Consideration of our Christian Commitment: Christmas Peace

This Sunday, as we celebrate the days of the Christmas Season, many share what the Holy Family shared that first Christmas, giving and receiving help from those near us. For me, the call to live as the Holy Family comes from being open to give and receive the help needed to peacefully accept and live lovingly the challenges that come from daily living. More than ever, Jesus, Mary and Joseph are called to be our guides as we share the experience they had that first Christmas. Pope Francis in his Christmas message said, "Let us truly enter into Christmas, bringing to Jesus all that we are, our alienation, our unhealed wounds, our sins. Then in Jesus, we will enjoy the true spirit of Christmas: the beauty of being loved by God."

As we moved through Advent to Christmas, we lit another candle on the Advent wreath each week. A new twist which some churches have begun doing is at Christmas placing a Christ Candle in the middle of the wreath. We discussed this last year at our Pastoral Staff meeting as we approached Christmas and thought this would be a good idea, but not to use just any candle, but to use an Easter Candle. After all, Christ was born so that he might teach us of the Father's love, suffer and die as evidence of that love, and then rise from the dead.

this would be a good idea, but not to use just any candle, but to use an Easter Candle. After all, Christ was born so that he might teach us of the Father's love, suffer and die as evidence of that love, and then rise from the dead.

The March for Life Youth will be leaving for Washington, D.C., on Monday, January 15 and returning home January 20th. Those attending from our parish are photographed below as they hosted Breakfast with St. Nick as a fund raiser for the trip. We wish them well and will keep them in our prayers as they travel to and from Washington, D.C., with many youth of the Diocese, along with many of our seminarians.

It is unfortunate when a Media Release such as the one below has to be published, but it is the Diocese's way of responding to allegations once made public. Sometimes the press and news reports everything the Diocese has said, other times bits and pieces. It was recommended the Media Release below be shared with parishioners:

Media Release Concerning Allegation of Sexual Misconduct Against Fr. Eric Gyan
December 15, 2017

"On November 8, 2017, the Diocese of Baton Rouge received from a woman in her thirties a written allegation of sexual misconduct against a priest of this diocese, Fr. Eric Gyan, currently Pastor of St. Theresa of Avila Parish in Gonzales. The misconduct was alleged to have occurred in 1996 when the woman was a minor and Fr. Gyan was pastor of St. John the Baptist Parish in Brusly. This is the only such complaint the diocese has ever received about Fr. Gyan.

"The diocese's victim assistance coordinator, Mrs. Amy Cordon, has spoken to the person making the allegation and offered assistance on behalf of the diocese. Following the diocese's own Policy Regarding Sexual Abuse of Minors by an Employee when an allegation is made, and in compliance with the U.S. Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, the diocese immediately notified civil officials of the allegation and assured them of our full cooperation. The diocese also informed the person who made the allegation that she had the right to contact civil officials.

"As required by canon law, and the aforementioned policies, trained professional lay persons were appointed by the diocese to conduct a preliminary inquiry into the matter. In addition, the Independent Review Board of the diocese was notified. The investigation is ongoing and to this point has not yielded any cause to remove Fr. Gyan from his current pastoral service. Fr. Gyan has categorically denied the allegation. The diocese takes such allegations very seriously. If anyone has information that can assist the diocese concerning this matter, please contact Mrs. Amy Cordon in the diocesan Victim Assistance Office at 225.242.0250."

Let us keep Fr. Gyan and his parishioners in our prayers as well as the young lady who has made the allegations. Let us pray for one another, and all who will be journeying with us into the new year, that this be a year of grace and blessing for us all. It's great beginning another calendar year with you! Love,

Continuing the Journey

RCIA Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults/Children

The Catechumenate sessions focus on Jesus, His teachings, the Church and the Sacraments. During this phase, the catechumens and candidates will take part in the Sunday liturgy of the Word although they do not yet participate in the Eucharist. They will leave the assembly after the homily with a blessing, and they will continue to explore Scripture and the basics of our Catholic faith. This dismissal is a powerful sign and public witness to the community of faith of the sincerity and determination of those seeking to become Catholic. It shows that they are seriously pursuing their call and preparing to become full-fledged, committed Catholics.

The RCIA sessions will resume on Sunday, January 7, 2018. For more information, contact Tammy Jackson at 225.665.9631 or tjackson@icc-msh.org.

Parish School of Religion News

MATTHEW The King and His Kingdom

Great Adventure Bible Study: Matthew
Introduction Class; Tuesday, January 9, 2018
9:00 a.m.; Small Hall

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is a Catholic Bible study that presents the Gospel account in a way that brings the history of Christ to life. Witness for yourself how Jesus fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament. Experience how Christ demonstrates His authority and Divinity through his miraculous ministry. And recognize the power and importance of the Church, the Mass, and the Sacraments established by Christ. Join us for Matthew: The King and His Kingdom at Immaculate Conception in Denham Springs beginning January 9, at 9:00 a.m. and continuing every Tuesday. For more information or to register for the study call the church office at 665.5359.

Wednesday, January 31—9:15 a.m. (Glorious) in the Small Hall (except on 1/27-in FFC)

Please bring an exercise mat. All fitness levels are encouraged to attend. For more information, contact Amanda Milton at 225-938-5236 or email questions to amandamilton88@gmail.com or visit www.soulcore.com.

Newly Baptized

Congratulations and prayers to the children who were baptized recently:

Harrison Cole Hartley

BAPTISM HOSTS AND HOSTESSES NEEDED!

How would you like the opportunity to help welcome our newly baptized children? We need volunteers who would like to assist the priest/deacon during the baptisms on Sundays after the 11 a.m. Mass. We have baptisms on the first, second, and fourth Sundays of the month, and if we have enough volunteers, you may only need to assist once a month! If you are interested, please call the church office at 665.5359.

THIS WEEK'S FORMED SPOTLIGHT:

Mary of Nazareth

Mary of Nazareth is an epic motion picture on the life of Mary, mother of Christ, from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus. Shot in high definition, it was filmed in Europe with outstanding cinematography, a strong cast, and a majestic music score. Actress Alissa Jung gives a beautiful, compelling, and inspired portrayal of Mary. The film vividly captures the essence of Mary's profound faith and trust in God amidst the great mysteries that she lived with as the Mother of the Messiah, as well as her compassionate humanity and concern for others, and the deep love that she and Jesus shared for one another. The movie underscores her special role in God's plan for our redemption, her unique relationship with Christ, and the tremendous suffering that she endured in union with his Passion and Death, as well as her serene joy at his Resurrection.

We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children.
